

General data protection explanation

By the use of my website you explain yourselves with that Elevation, processing and use of data according to that the following description all right. My website is able basically without registration are visited. Besides, become Data as for example called sides or names of her called away file, date and time for statistical purposes stored on the server, without these data immediately on their person are covered. Personal data, in particular name, address or e-mail address become so far possibly on voluntary base raised. Without your approval if no passing on of the data occurs into three parts.

Data protection explanation of cookies

My website uses cookies. These are small text files, make possibly, on the terminal of the user specific ones, on the user to store referring information, while he the website is of use. Cookies allow it, in particular to determine frequency of utilisation and user's number of the sides, to analyse behaviour patterns of the side use, but also to form our offer more friendly to customer. Cookies remain about the end of a browser meeting stored and are able with to a renewed side visit are called again. If you this do not wish, you had to do your Internet browser in such a way put that he refuses the acceptance of cookies.

Source: data protection explanation from anwalt.de